

EAA Chapter 42

Minutes from 6/02/2010 Board of Directors Meeting

The meeting was called to order by 2010 EAA Chapter 42 President Dick Reeve at 7:16 p.m. at Piper's Restaurant. In attendance were Lars Gleitsmann, Walter Yankauskas, Dick Reeve, Bob Edison, John Davis, Ed White, and Rob Stapleton.

Old Business-

President Dick Reeve opened the meeting with an agenda asking for the previous minutes.

Secretary Rob Stapleton read the minutes from the May meeting and they were unanimously approved.

Treasurer John Davis gave the treasury reporting that the Chapter's bank account contained $3,500 dollars. Rob Stapleton turned in a check for Reeve Airmotive advertising in the newsletter and Davis said that the chapter had caught up with new members and collected from nearly all of the old members that attend the meetings.

Walter Yankauskas gave a report on the EAA Chapter 42 website that is working on fixing the members only section.

New Business-

John Davis brought up the topic of the Brown Arches donation and president Reeve suggested that we bring it up at a general meeting to the membership before donating.

The next Chapter meeting on June 22 was decided to be held at Birchwood by Matt Freeman and Chris Gill.

The July general meeting will be a picnic barbecue at John Davis and Sue Millers house in Sand Lake.

Ed White reported on the Young Eagle effort and that he needed help for the July 24 Palmer Rendezvous and would need pilots and aircraft to fly a dozen or so young people.

The next board meeting was scheduled for July 7 at Pipers Restaurant.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:44 p.m. where-in hangar flying, tall stories and even taller glasses of beer were consumed.
